Summary

As a recent enrollee in the New Horizons CLC programs, I came to the program with 10+ years of self-education. I have designed and programmed various computers and installed upgrades to mainframes. I have troubleshooting experience and been able to resolve various problems as it relates to software and hardware issues. I am a self-driven learner always looking to enhance my skillset and provide those skills to an organization that values loyalty and has a “growth from within” attitude.
